
ABOUT THE JOURNAL

AIMS AND FOCUS

Mindoro Journal of Social Sciences and Development Studies (MJSSDS), a peer-reviewed journal, is the official publication of Occidental Mindoro State University published on a biannual basis, with two (2) issues released each calendar year. The journal follows the publication schedule of January–June (Issue 1) and July–December (Issue 2). It aims to promote study and research that forge links between the social sciences and sustainable rural development. This journal is an interdisciplinary publication and welcomes articles from diverse theoretical perspectives and methodological approaches, which engage and contribute to rural development. It also focuses on the significance, roles, and implications of various disciplines on rural societies and community development.

Subject areas include but are not limited to the following fields:

- Rural sociology and anthropology
- Sustainable agricultural practices
- Rural education and literacy
- Public health in rural areas
- Rural economics and livelihood
- Environmental sustainability in rural contexts
- Rural infrastructure and technology
- Community development and social policy
- Gender studies and rural development
- Indigenous knowledge and practices
- Community extension

PUBLICATION ETHICS

Following the COPE (Code of Conduct of Publication Editors, Code of Conduct and Best Practice Guidelines for Journal Editors: <https://publicationethics.org/>), MJSSDS adheres to the highest ethical standard of publication.
